MANY WITNESS HOME CEREMONY CAMILLE ADAMS BECOMES BRIDE

Brilliant Wedding Is Attended by Society

Kneeling before an altar of gladiolus and roses, Miss Camille Bowie Adams, daughter of Mrs. Frank Lennel Adams, became the wife of Willing at the Adams home on Telegraph avenue. In the presence of 250 friends and relatives, Rev. Alexander Allen, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, read the service. Brilliant in its appointments, the wedding will be recorded in the social annals of Alameda county as one of the most elaborate affairs ever witnessed here. Members of the exclusive set, debutantes and former colleagues of the young couple exchanged greetings under the garlands of Beauty of Nice stock, which adorned the wedding apartments. The lower part of the home was converted into a flower garden and formed an exquisite background for the handsome gowns which were shown to advantage in the spacious rooms. The harmony of colors was carefully conceived by the decorators, who spared no effort in securing the most perfect effects.

From the second floor the bridal procession wended its way to the altar, led by six ushers, who were followed by the three maids of honor in single file, then the maid of honor and flower girl and last in the march was the bride. The scene was awe-inspiring as the array of colors, beauty and youth walked to the strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march, which was played by an orchestra. By the side of the two gold columns near the altar were Mrs. Frank Adams, the bridegroom and his best man, who met the bride.

SIMPLY GOWNED.

Attired in white crepe meteer, with an overdress of Venetian lace and a veil which was suspended from a Juliet cap, the bride made a beautiful picture. Her gown was simple but gorgeous. The veil and the lace which adorned the dress were worn by her mother 24 years ago upon the day of her marriage. The only jewel was a diamond lavelier, which was the wedding gift of the bridegroom. The pointed train, which was several yards in length, gave graceful lines to the slender figure. Her bouquet consisted of lilies of the valley and white orchids, which were tied in four parts with a lavender cord.

The alternating colors displayed by the bridal company was a striking feature of the sartorial scheme. Miss Nellie Adams, maid of honor, appeared in pink charmeuse with an embroidered net overdress with a train. Her only headpiece was a band of rhinestones. She carried an armful of "My Maryland roses," which were tied with pink chiffon.

LIKE FLOWERS OF SPRING.

The three bridesmaids could be likened unto spring flowers and rose buds. They were Miss Beth Hoyt, who was a study in pink charmeuse; Miss Margaret Garthwaite, who wore blue charmeuse, and Miss Deborah Dyer, who was clad in a pink charmeuse. They all carried bouquets of pink conquer roses which were fastened with blue satin ribbon.

Sally Havens, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, was charming in pink and white charmeuse. She carried a bouquet of colonial roses. Mrs. Frank Adams, who gave the bride into the keeping of her husband, was richly gowned in lavender crepe meteer trimmed with outchess and rose point lace. Her ornaments were amethyst jewels and rhinestones in the hair.

Gardineers were the boutonniere worn by the ushers. They were Robert Van Sant, Seyd Havens, Richard Diersen, Montford Kroll, Dudley Valentine and George Bowles. Harold Jewett was the best man. After the ceremony, supper was served under a large canvas canopy which represented a forest scene, on the lawn, where congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the bride pair. Seated at the bride's table were Miss Julia Leigh, Miss Elsa Schilling, Miss Florence Henshaw, Dr. Sumner Hardy, Sidney Hardy, Sidney Howard, Miss Grace Layman, Miss Nellie Adams, Little Miss Sally Havens, Miss Deborah Dyer, Walter Leimert, Shirley Houghton, Miss Beatrice Simpson, Seyd Havens, Miss Beth Hoyt, Mrs. Frank L. Adams, Robert Van Santa, Dudley Valentine, George Bowles, Miss Margaret Garthwaite, Robert Diersen and Montford Kroll. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Grace Layman; the bride's thimble was received by Miss Beth Hoyt and the gold ring by Miss Deborah Dyer.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Daniels, Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newell, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilhelm, Mr. and Mrs. Edward De Golia, Mr. and Mrs. O. Badgley, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bowles, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Chickering, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tassara, Sam Bell McKee, Dr. and Mrs. H. G. U. P. UNMERGER PLANS TO BE HEARD

District Court for Utah Sets
Hearing for June 10
at St. Paul.

Plans for S. P. Stock to Be Submitted.

ST. PAUL, June 5.—The Union Pacific Railroad Company applied in St. Paul today to Federal Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith, sitting in the District Court for the district of Utah, for an order fixing the time for the hearing upon the first and second amended plans for the disposition of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company in the matter of the dissolution of the combination between the two. The time and place of hearing were fixed at 10 a. m. on June 12, 1913, in St. Paul. An order was made that the petition for the hearing should be filed with the clerk of the District Court in Utah. The plans are:

First—That the stock of the Southern Pacific Company owned by the Union Pacific Company shall be offered for public subscription at a minimum price and that only such an amount of said stock as shall be designated by the court, if any, shall be allotted to subscribers who are stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

TRUSTEE PLAN.

Second—That the entire stock shall be transferred to a trustee appointed by the court and that certificates of interest representing the stock so deposited shall be issued by the trustee, which certificates of interest shall carry no voting right, or other incident of stock ownership, except the right to share in the dividends collected by the trustee, and that said certificates of interest shall be exchangeable for the deposited stock upon filing an affidavit to the effect that the applicant does not own any shares of the capital stock of the Union Pacific Company. The certificates of interest are to be offered for subscription to stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company. The petition prays for the approval of both plans and for a reasonable time within which to elect under which plan to proceed and to offer the stock under the first plan or the certificates of interest under the second plan.

SACRIFICES HIS LIFE IN EFFORT TO SAVE OTHERS

John Lowe, Brakeman, Crushed to Death
in Car Collision

RICHMOND, June 5.—While endeavoring to prevent a collision between a street car and a Santa Fe limited train, John Lowe, a brakeman, met instant death yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, when he was caught between the street car and railroad coach and horribly crushed. His bride of a month, who was formerly Miss Koan Aiken of Fresno, survived the accident from the

HIS SECOND TRIP.

Lowe was making his second trip, been working out of Fresno up to three weeks ago. He had been married three months before and last Friday was joined in this city by his bride, the two establishing a cozy home at an apartment house at the corner of Ninth street and Levin avenue. Lowe was 28 years of age and was a native of Iowa. He had been following railroad life for the past six years.

The train was in charge of Conductor Robert Parker and Engineer D. Shields, but Lowe, stationed on the front end of the train as lookout man, was responsible for its safety, and his duty, according to railroad rules, was to stick at his post. This he did and the act, according to everyone who saw the accident, undoubtedly cost him his life.

Conductor Parker was in the observation coach collecting fares and the first indication he had of danger was when he was nearly thrown from his feet by the sudden application of the air brakes. Before he could rush to the rear of the train to see what the trouble might be the crash of the collision had occurred.

LOWE'S COMMENT.

Solomon, who was seated next to Lowe, stated that when the street car started across the track there seemed to be plenty of time for it to get across as the train was not traveling at a very high speed and was still several hundred feet away. "Lowe remarked that it was rather a foolish chance for the street car crew to take," said Solomon, "and then almost before he had finished speaking the trolley came off. The conductor and motorman jumped from the car and came running toward our train, signaling frantically to stop. I knew there were passengers on the street car and did not see any get off, while I don't think Lowe did. As he reached for his air valve I jumped into the vestibule for safety, seeing that there would be a crash. I do not think he had time to get out of the way after he threw on the emergency."

Ehlers stated that when he signaled his car to make the crossing there was plenty of time to clear it without danger and that the defective trolley was an incident he had not counted upon. Traffic over the main line tracks was tied up for two hours, the Angel being unable to leave this city until nearly 7 o'clock, although due to leave at 5 o'clock.

PRESIDENT TO CONFER WITH CHINDA

Ambassador and Wilson to Take Up Japan's Reply
at 4 P. M.

Will Not Be Present at Personal Conference.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Wilson arranged a conference at 4 p. m. today with Viscount Chinda, the ambassador from Japan, to discuss the Tokio government's latest note of protest against the California anti-alien land law. It is the first time that the ambassador has availed himself of his privilege of addressing himself directly to the President of the United States, as personal representative of his sovereign, Emperor Yoshihito.

It also was arranged that Secretary Bryan should confer with President Wilson before the ambassador is received, but it was not contemplated that he would be present later. Bryan will give to the President his views of Japan's rejoinder to the last note of the United States, reiterating that the California law is a discrimination and in contravention of the treaty of 1911, notwithstanding the disclaimer of the state department.

PRESIDENT READS NOTE.

After reading Japan's latest note on the California anti-alien land law and just before a conference with Ambassador Chinda, President Wilson expressed today the view that the new communication opened the way for "very interesting and friendly negotiations."
